

Canadian Peace Initiative of Arnprior & Area

Will Host a time of Spiritual Sharing on How to Engage Love as a Political Value on November 21,22 2014

Where: 46 Elgin Street East, Arnprior ON

The Presenters

Dada Dayashiilananda, yoga monk of Ananda Marga (meaning The Path of Bliss).

Trained in Ghana and India. worked in Congo from 1996 to 2009 and have been teaching yoga and meditation in Canada since 2010. Ananda Marga teaches devotional practices to a Supreme Consciousness, a Great Love and a social responsibility to distribute resources equitably to all people

Albert Dumont "South Wind", a member of the Algonquin Nation, believes the human heart is the keeper of many galaxies within which "love" and all of its definitions abound. Words and deeds expressing love shine like stars in the human heart and it is these South Wind will speak to.

Maria Le-clerc-McAdam -Personality and Human Relations (PRH) trainer for more than 30 years- PRH holds the belief that all persons aspire to live their potential and to contribute in their own unique way to society. André Rochais, Founder of PRH, wrote:

Our humanity is made of various types of personalities, each having value. Everyone can, in his or her small world, be a contributing factor to innovation, progress and movement toward more humanness.

You are invited to join together:

November 21 Friday evening at 7p.m. Meet and meditate

November 22 Saturday

8:30 Gathering meditation

9:00 Each speakers have 15 minutes to introduce themselves

9:45 Speaker 1 – gives their presentation

10:15 silent break

10:30 open reflection and discussion

11:00 Speaker 2

11:30 open reflection and discussion

12:00 Lunch

1:00 Speaker 3

1:30 open reflection and discussion

2:00 Bringing the threads together – how to live what we have experienced

2:30 break

2:45 What next

3:00 meditation

4:00 closing and thankyou to all

4:30 end

Donations would be appreciated

To RSVP or get more information contact: Theresa Dunn 613
897-5055